

Department: IT & Project Management Department

Function Name: Developer

This position ensures a sustainable and up-to-date development framework to be able to develop business applications and administrative tools.

1. This position ensures that each departments' business requirements are met by providing enterprise solutions for company IT requirements from software technique perspective and providing professional IT application development.
2. This position ensures development of all application development frameworks and architecture design to support IT processes, which enables re-usability of source-code and module to shorten application development time.
3. This position ensures proper support for application maintenance from software technique perspective.

Main Tasks:

1. Support business requirements
 - Through department coordinators, clarify and understand the business requirements in VWFC and transfer those requirements into professional IT systems and processes.
 - Make a development plan, including implementation timeline and key milestones, and review with PM to reach agreement
 - Provide IT application concepts to department coordinators and discuss relevance to business needs
 - Program software modules, daily operation tools, interfaces and business processes.
 - Conduct software unit test on developed system to ensure basic functionality
 - Conduct user experience tests with related business departments to verify requirements are fulfilled
 - Monitor business processes and put forward suggestions that could optimize IT operations according to business process requirements and innovating thinking
 - Ensure development team complies with internal guidelines to distribute the release of proper functionality
 - Support AMS to successfully deploy application patches or updates
2. Development of all application development frameworks and architecture design to support IT processes
 - Communicate with IT Project Management to understand any new IT process requirements that IT Development can assist with
 - Make a development plan, including implementation timeline and key milestones, and review with PM to reach agreement
 - Design, create, and make any required adjustments to IT processes based on IT development team requirements
 - Re-use Source Code and Modules in order to make development of new applications more efficient
 - If necessary, contact external vendors to discuss IT development-related training, software, and support to successfully complete development projects
3. Support application maintenance from software technique perspective
 - Confirm change request with business departments and PMs, and efficiently complete required change

VOLKSWAGEN NEW MOBILITY SERVICES

CONSULTING (BEIJING) COMPANY LIMITED

大众汽车新动力咨询服务(北京)有限公司

- Make a development plan, including implementation timeline and key milestones, and review with PM for agreement

Support AMS team deploying new versions

Education:

Bachelor or above education degree, majoring in Computer Science.

Working Experience (in years):

1. 5+ years experience in .NET (C#) or 5+ years experience in BI Reporting Services
2. 3+ years experience in MS SQL Server databases

Remarks (Certificates etc.):

ITIL v3 Certification